

Fragment of a handwritten document, likely a letter or official record, written in a cursive script. The text is mirrored across the page, suggesting it was written on a folded sheet of paper. The document is heavily damaged, with significant portions missing, particularly a large section in the upper right and a jagged tear along the right edge. The ink is dark, and the paper is aged and discolored. At the bottom of the fragment, the word "Materie" is written in a larger, bolder hand, followed by the number "(22)".
