

Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely Latin, on aged parchment. The text is arranged in several lines, with some parts appearing to be organized into columns or tables. The parchment is heavily stained and has irregular edges, suggesting it is a fragment of a larger document. The ink is dark brown or black, and the parchment is a light tan color. The text is written in a cursive style typical of the late Middle Ages. There are some faint markings and what appears to be a purple stamp or seal at the bottom right of the fragment.
