

In nomine domini... notarius publicus... de venditione... et ceteris... (The main body of the text is a Latin legal document detailing a property transaction and associated legal obligations. It includes references to various parties, locations like 'Saxonia', and legal concepts such as 'redemptio' and 'obligatio'. The text is dense and uses medieval script.

Et inhiat... de spina non... (A smaller block of text at the bottom of the page, possibly a continuation or a separate clause of the main document.)
