

Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely Latin or German, covering the majority of the page. The text is dense and appears to be a formal document or record.

Handwritten text at the bottom of the page, possibly a signature or a date, including the word "Mars".

Final line of text at the bottom of the page, including a large decorative initial or flourish on the right side.

