

This document is a handwritten manuscript in French, likely a legal or historical record. The text is dense and written in cursive script, with some headings in capital letters. It discusses various topics including land ownership, inheritance, and specific legal cases involving plots of land and their boundaries. The handwriting is fluid, with many corrections and marginal notes.

10 Transversaria de vulvo, sublino astuta et impala antebus Heteromis Comoris, plus quam dum Antonii, hoc probatum Lavello ut per rem professum omnem et singulariter. Depressa tundam, fructibus fortis et his me multis raro dubius stimulatis protinus operata, usq; fiducia et testimonia quoniam sibi.

B73

Morbio 24 (31)

Morbio 24 (31)