This image shows a page from a medieval manuscript, folio 3 (139a). The text is written in two columns in a Gothic script. The top half of the page contains a dense block of text, while the bottom half is divided into two columns. A circular blue ink stamp is located in the lower right quadrant of the page. The stamp contains the text "LVRICIA L. LANDESBIBLIOTHEK HALLE".

The text discusses various ecclesiastical topics, including the sacrament of baptism, the nature of sins, and the responsibilities of clerics. It also mentions the Virgin Mary and the saints. The script is characteristic of late medieval or early modern printed books.
