

Handwritten text in a dense, cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper. It appears to be a formal record or a legal document, given the structured nature of the entries and the use of some specific terminology. The script is very compact and difficult to read without specialized knowledge of the language and handwriting style.

Handwritten text at the bottom of the page, including a signature and a date. The signature is written in a large, stylized cursive hand. To the right of the signature is a vertical line with a decorative flourish at the top, possibly a date or a reference number. The text is written in the same cursive script as the main body of the document.
