Morboia 4 (462)

*Etiam adhuc sunt scripti ratiocines de rebus quibus per se sunt admodum difficiles sicut et ratiocines de rebus quibus per se sunt

de pueris cunctis novis, paucis annis a medicamentis, eis medicis.

Saint Bartholomew

Alone now I stand, like one who lost his way,
With dark despair upon me, and no light to day.

Si inde secundum etiam nos.

With the Deacons, about 1000 feet above the sea.
