

(94) H 2220M

Handwritten text in a historical German script, likely a legal or administrative document. The text is densely packed and covers most of the page. It appears to be a record or a set of regulations, possibly related to land ownership or local governance. The script is a cursive form of Gothic, characteristic of the late 15th or early 16th century. There are several lines of text, with some larger initials or headings. The document is written on aged, slightly yellowed paper with some visible wear and tear, including a large stain in the lower right quadrant.

(94) H 2220M

Handwritten text at the bottom of the page, possibly a signature or a concluding statement. It includes a large, stylized initial or mark on the right side. The text is less dense than the main body of the document.
