

Fragment of a handwritten document on aged, stained, and damaged parchment. The text is written in a cursive script, likely from the Middle Ages. The parchment is heavily stained with brown spots and has two large, irregular holes. In the top right corner, there is a small grid or table with numbers. In the bottom right corner, there is a larger, more complex grid or diagram. At the bottom center, the word "Morsus" is written in a stylized font, with a large letter "F" in parentheses to its left. A circular stamp is visible near the bottom right corner.
