Martin 2 (247)

Handwritten text in a Gothic script, likely a Latin manuscript. The text is densely packed and covers most of the page. There are several large, decorative initials or flourishes interspersed throughout the text, particularly on the right side. The paper shows signs of age, including discoloration and some wear at the edges.

A section of handwritten text, possibly a continuation or a separate entry, located in the middle of the page. It features similar Gothic script and includes some decorative elements.

Another section of handwritten text at the bottom of the page, continuing the script and style of the upper sections.
