

Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text in a historical script, possibly Saxon or German, covering the majority of the page.

Handwritten text, possibly a signature or date, located below the stamp.

Large, stylized handwritten text or signature at the bottom left of the page.

Handwritten text at the very bottom of the page, possibly a date or reference number.

