

Handwritten text in a historical script, likely a Latin or Germanic manuscript, covering the majority of the page. The text is dense and appears to be a formal document or record.

(205) + 200

Additional handwritten text at the bottom of the page, possibly a signature or a date, including the word 'Mendel'.

