

Grote, Rainer

Prof. Dr. Rainer Grote, LLM (Edinburgh) has far-reaching experience in legal scholarship and consultancy. He did his legal studies at the universities of Bielefeld (1981–83), Geneva (1983/84) and Göttingen (1984–87). Following his First State Exam, he completed an LLM at the University of Edinburgh. In 1993, he received his doctoral degree in law from the University of Göttingen („summa cum laude“) for a work on the constitutional theory and practice of the French System of government, which was awarded the „European Thesis Prize“ by the European Group of Public Law. Since 1994 he has been Senior Research Fellow at the Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law and Lecturer in Law at the University of Heidelberg. Besides he is professor of law at Göttingen University. He has worked as expert and consultant on numerous law and administration reform projects in Afghanistan, the MENA region, and Latin America.