

Mirzaii, Ali Mohammad

Dr. Mirzaii has been teaching law at the Ibn-e-Sina Institute for Higher Education in Kabul since January 2009. Before that time he served as lecturer at Kateb University in Kabul. Dr Mirzaii is an eminent expert of Afghan commercial law. He taught courses in behalf of the Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law and for the Max Planck Foundation in many different provinces of Afghanistan. Dr. Mirzaii obtained his doctorate from Shahid Beheshti University (Tehran) in 2013 with a thesis on “Direct Action”. He also holds a LL.M. degree from Tarbiat Modares University (Tehran) where he wrote a thesis on Copyright Law, and a Bachelor in Law from Imam Khomeini University (Qazvin, Iran). Next to his academic works, he is registered as attorney-at-law with the Afghan Independent Bar Association.