

Amin, Najib

Najib Amin is a permanent academic member of the Faculty of Law at the University of Kabul. He served as lecturer for general criminal law, criminal investigations, and theoretical criminology for the past twelve years. Mr. Amin holds a Bachelor's degree in law from the University of Kabul and a Master's degree in Law and Economics from the University of Bologna, Italy. Currently, he is a PhD with the University of Leiden, the Netherlands and works on a comprehensive socio-legal study of a Russian era prison in Afghanistan (i.e. Policharkhi) and its rehabilitation impact at present. Mr. Amin brings with him experience from working in various national and international institutions including the Presidential Palace in his role as a Deputy Director General for the Office of the Government and as an Undersecretary for the Cabinet of the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan. He served as the focal point and manager of all cabinet affairs and was responsible for monitoring and evaluation of every single decree, order, and cabinet decision across the country. Mr. Amin has been leading policy coordination of all Loya Jirgas (2004 to 2014). He further led legal aid organizations in Afghanistan for past one and a half decades in the capacity of a board member and latter an executive director. He received several awards, medals, and presidential appreciations for his good leadership. Mr. Amin is also an active member of Afghanistan Independent Bar Association.