

Kamali, Mohammad Hashim

Prof. Dr. Mohammad Hashim Kamali did his BA in law and political science at Kabul University in 1965, before relocating to the UK where he took his LLM (1972) and PhD (1976) at University of London. Dr. Kamali is founding CEO and senior fellow at the International Institute of Advanced Islamic Studies (IAIS) in Malaysia; Chairman of the CIMB Shariah Committee (since 2007) and the Shariah Board, Stanlib Corporation, South Africa (since 2007); Senior Fellow Institute of Strategic and International Studies

۵۸۴ / مجله مطالعات حقوقی افغانستان
۵۸۴ / د افغانستان د حقوقی مطالعاتو مجله
Journal of Afghan Legal Studies / 584

(ISIS) in Malaysia (since 2007), the Aal al-Bayt Royal Institute of Islamic Thought (since 2005), and the Afghanistan Academy of Sciences (since 2008); Editor-in-chief at Islam and Civilisational Renewal, IAIS Malaysia (since 2008); as well as Non-Executive Director for the CIMB Islamic Bank Bhd (since 2008). He teaches in many countries of the world and publishes widely about Islamic law and its interrelations with state law.